SETTLEMENT

Ashland, Ohio, March 21, 1898.

The creditors and Financial Board of Ashland University met in the college building for the pur-pose of adjusting the claims held by the said creditors.

On motion E. J. Worst was made chairman and J. C. Beal secretary.

John Keim secretary of the Financial committee on behalf of said committee made the following prop-osition to the creditors and their representatives, viz: To pay them the balance of the principal of their claims unpaid as follows.

Sixty per cent. in cash and forty per cent. in cer-tificates, certifying their interest of forty per cent. of the unpaid principal of their claims in a lot of promissory notes in favor of Ashland University, payable in five equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. and the payment thereof guaranteed by the Prudential committee of the Board of trustees as follows:

JOHN KEIM,
DR. E. J. WORST,
CHAS. E. DEFFENBAUGH.

And in payment of the interest on their claims agree to pay them the proceeds of unpaid appor-tionments over and above $8000 to the amount of $2000, as fast as they can be collected, less the expense of collecting the same, and also a tier of lots abutting the street running north and south along the west
